Some practitioners use the term strategic/tactical/operational command structure instead, but the different categories are equivalent. In some cases, the national government will assume ultimate control and act as a "platinum" level. The three roles are not restricted to any rank, though invariably the chain of command will be the same as the order ...

Gold/silver/bronze command structure — Wikipedia

The generic command structure, nationally recognised, accepted and used by the police, other emergency services and partner agencies, is based on the gold, silver, bronze (GSB) hierarchy of command and can be applied to the resolution of both spontaneous incidents and planned operations. The terms gold, silver and bronze are used in the police service.

The Gold-Silver-Bronze Command Structure Gold (Strategic) The Gold Commander is in overall control of their organisation's resources at the incident. They are not on site, but located at a distant control room, the Gold Command, where they formulate the strategy for dealing with the incident. If the Gold Commanders for the organisations involved are not co-located, they will be in constant communication with each other.

Re: Gold / silver / bronze address keys explanation. I recall seeing a post on some forum or other about this, if memory serves, a gold address is one that exists on Openreach's Postal Address File, a silver address is one that's on the Royal Mails PAF but not yet on OR's, OR's periodically updated from Royal Mails, (weekly, monthly something like that) and a bronze address is one that cannot be found on RM's or OR's PAF, is the address in question fairly standard like, 51, Soandso St ...
